Data Protection Officer

The Data Protection Officer appointed by the Data Controller can be contacted at the following email address: dpo@funiviedelbaldo.it.

Categories of data processed

The personal data processed by a video surveillance system consist of images acquired and recorded by the system itself.

Purpose of the processing and legal bases

Personal data are processed for the following purposes: protection of company assets; safety of people. The legal basis of the processing can be found in the pursuit of the legitimate interest of the Data Controller and / or third parties (Article 6 paragraph 1 letter f GDPR).

Need for processing

The video surveillance system is to be considered essential for the safety of people and for the protection of company assets. For these purposes, the processing is necessary.

Processing Methods

The processing is carried out in compliance with the methods and requirements established by the GDPR, by the provisions of the aforementioned Provision of 8 April 2010, as well as the 3/2019 Guidelines on the processing of personal data through video devices - Version 2.0 adopted on 29 January 2020 of the European Data Protection Board and will include all the operations or set of operations indicated in Article 4, no. 2), Regulations - carried out with the aid of IT systems - and more precisely: collection, registration, organization, structuring, updating, conservation, adaptation or modification, extraction and analysis, consultation, use, communication by transmission, comparison, interconnection, limitation, deletion or destruction of data. The processing is carried out through the use of electronic tools, is managed by specifically appointed, authorized and / or designated personnel and the data is stored via IT support. The Data controller has put in place security procedures regarding access to servers. The area subjected to filming and recording is manned by information signs indicating the presence of the video surveillance system.

Data retention

The images will be kept for a period not exceeding 7 days following their detection, after which they will be deleted by overwriting, subject to specific needs for further conservation (in relation to holidays or office closures, for the acquisition of evidence in the event of the theft, due to specific investigative requests from the Judicial Authority), as well as in the event that a specific investigative request from the Judicial Authority or Judicial Police has to be answered.

Scope of communication and dissemination of data

The processing will be carried out, in part, directly by the Data Controller: the recipients of the data subject's personal data include the authorized subjects belonging to the Data Controller's organization, appropriately trained and made aware of the constraints imposed by EU Regulation 2016/679. For the pursuit of the aforementioned purposes, personal data may be disclosed to third parties, appointed as Data Processors (Article 28 of the GDPR) by the Data Controller, exclusively in order to comply with contractual or legal obligations, belonging to the following categories: subjects external persons in charge of the management / maintenance / administration of the video surveillance system, any professionals who lend their consultancy activities to the Data controller.

The complete list of the persons appointed as Data Processors is available upon request from the Data Controller.

The images may be communicated to police forces and / or judicial authorities, in case of request.

The data collected through the video surveillance system will not be disseminated.

Data transfer abroad

For the purposes indicated above, the Personal Data will be processed within the European Economic Area (EEA). Should they be transferred to Third Countries, in the absence of an adequacy decision by the European Commission, the provisions of the applicable legislation on the transfer of Personal Data to third countries will be respected, such as the Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the European Commission.

Data subject rights

In the presence of the conditions provided for by the GDPR, the data subject may exercise the rights provided for in Articles 15 and following of the Regulation (Chapter III) in particular, the right of access to personal data, cancellation ("right to be forgotten"), limitation of processing, opposition at any time to the processing of data.

It should be noted that the right to update, rectify or integrate is not practically exercisable in consideration of the nature of the data being processed.

Furthermore, the right to portability cannot be exercised in consideration of the legal basis of the processing.

To exercise the aforementioned rights, a specific request must be sent to the Data Controller at the addresses specified above.

Before providing an answer, the data controller may need to identify the data subject, by requesting to provide a copy of his identity document.

Written feedback will be provided without undue delay and, in any case, no later than one month from receipt of the request.

Pursuant to art. 77 of the GDPR, if the data subject considers that the processing of personal data concerning him or her does not comply with the Regulations, the right to lodge a complaint with the Guarantor for the Protection of Personal Data (www.garanteprivacy.it) is recognized.
